

EBARA Group CSR Report 2013

How We Handle Your Comments and Inquiries

■ Please send in your views, comments and questions through the CSR Report page of the EBARA website.

EBARA may, if necessary when conducting business with other companies within the Group or if required as part of a business operation, provide personal information to other Group companies. Replies to your questions may be provided from member companies of the EBARA Group other than EBARA Corporation.

Chart Colors and Designs

Charts are designed to be legible for those having impaired color vision.

〈Front Cover〉

The design of a poster prepared in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of EBARA in 2012. The technologies, product and services we handle may not be commonly seen in our lives, but they are closely related to people and environments in all aspects of our living.

〈Back Cover〉

“Netsu to Makoto” (“enthusiasm and sincerity in Japanese”), the founding spirit of EBARA and motto of the founder, Issei Hatakeyama. Our commitment to continue supporting society, industry and living with zeal and sincerity is reflected.
